

Butte County Library
& Cal Humanities presents....

Author in Conversation

"Daniel Alarcón writes with a poet's heart and a reporter's skill....Alarcón understands the yin and yang of warfare and its aftermath, and describes with beautiful, succinct prose how opposing sensibilities-- loyalty and treachery, tenderness and brutality- can coexist in the same body, the same place, like dandelions poking through chunks of broken asphalt."

~Cleveland Plain Dealer

Wednesday, 9.12.12

Time: 7.30 pm

Where: CSU Chico Humanities Center

Chico Humanities & Fine Arts

Author Daniel Alarcón will speak to the Chico community about his book and democracy. There will also be a question and answer session.

A reception will follow the event.

This event is free and open to the public.
Tickets are recommended as seating is limited.

Contact Kimberlee Wheeler kwheeler@buttecounty.net 530 538 2569

This project is part of Searching for Democracy, an initiative of Cal Humanities in partnership with the California Center for the Book and the California State Library, and made possible with funding from the BayTree Foundation, the Seedlings Foundation, and the National Endowment for the Humanities. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of the Cal Humanities or the National Endowment for the Humanities. For more information, please visit www.calhum.org.

